North Carolina Numismatic Association, Inc.

HELLO N.C.N.A. MEMBERS:

This is my first letter to the membership as your President. I wish to express my thanks for being elected to that office, to head the team that directs the operation of N.C.N.A.

It is an honor to take office at a time when the N.C.N.A. is fast becoming a top State Numismatic Association, and I may say in order to do this I need the help of every member, not only in paying your dues on time but if each of you will sign up one new member each year we could double our membership every twelve months. Just think we could soon be second to ANA.

As some of you already know we have been working hard to put out a NCNA Journal which we hope to send out four issues a year. We hop to have the first issue ready to mail out in time for our convention November 9, 10 & 11th in Greensboro, N. C. at the New Golden Eagle Motor Inn.

In order to have a good NCNA publication we need every Club and every member to help. We feel that each Club can benefit by appointing an active member of your Club to act as your NCNA representative. Be sure to include his or her name when your club sends in your 1974 dues. Have your club secretary send in information concerning your clubs activities both new and upcoming. Include your meeting night, date and place. Also send in any articles you wish printed in the Journal. PLEASE WON'T YOU HELP We will also give a free 20 word ad free to each member in good standing in each issue Mail to me at P. O. Box 1171, Washington, N. C. 27889.

Well it's that time again. The most rewarding time for all NCNA members, the 15th Annual Convention to be in Greensboro, NC November 9-11, 1973. For those members who were at Fayetteville last year, I don't have to tell you, but for the new members and the ones who did not attend the big one last year, come to GREENSBORO, the biggest one yet. You won't regret it. When NCNA members get together it's like an old time family reunion. So come to GREENSBORO and see.

Your President,

Attention Ladies!!

AUTHENCE BASON

You ladies who are not interested in Numismatics now is the time to do your Christmas shopping . . . . or just shop for yourself. The Convention site - Golden Eagle Motel - is in the center of Greensboro's Shopping District. Two exclusive Ladies Wear Stores only two blocks away and three large Department Stores within a three block radius. So come and stay at the convention site and shop to your hearts content with no meals to prepare or dishes to wash. Restaurant in the Motel, S & W Cafeteria only half a block away, or one of the department stores has a Garden Room Restaurant.

Now there is an Antique Show at the Coliseum sponsored by the Garden Clubs of Greensboro and if you are interested contact me or make your request known at the registration desk and a way will be provided for you to attend the Antique Show.

If Junior of Susie has some studying to do they have been putting off and that theme has to be in Monday morning - - don't let that keep you home . . . . the Library is only two or three blocks away and our library staff is very helpful.

Want to learn more about Greensboro's History, O. Henry, or North Carolina? Greensboro Historical Museum is only two blocks from the convention site.

SEE YOU AT THE NORTH CAROLINA NUMISMATIC ASSOCIATION CONVENTION ● GOLDEN EAGLE MOTEL ● NOVEMBER 9, 10, 11, 1973

Exhibitors At Winston Salem Show

Mrs. Baxter Bason of Greensboro, N. C. did her usual outstanding job as exhibits woman at the Winston Salem Coin Show held recently. Mrs. Bason always lines up a fine array of exhibits when she undertakes this job this year was no exception. I know the clubs she has served as exhibits chairwoman have no complaints about her ability to get the job done satisfactorily and present an interesting set of exhibits.

OBITUARY

Sooner or later there comes a time in everyone's life when we are forced to do something that we had just as soon not be compelled to do. It is with heavy heart and deep sympathy that I report the dealth of the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Jackson of Greensboro, N. C. Young Jackson, 27, was killed in a traffic accident about two weeks ago in an Interstate near Greensboro. It is reported that Young Jackson was not married.

This is all I have on this tragedy at press time.

Numismatists and non Numismatists, all friends of Mr. and Mrs. Jackson extend our genuine sympathy and heart felt condolences and offer our prayers in this hour of sorrow.

Ann McNabb, 62, of Chattanooga, Tenn., died recently. It is reported that she suffered a heart attack. All of Ann's friends are saddened by the news of her death and I feel sure I speak for all who knew her when I say we offer her family our sympathy.

These were two fine people who enjoyed widespread popularity and who had assembled a great mass of friends. They will be sadly missed when people of good will gather at future coin shows, and other functions enjoyed by these two and friends of other interest.

A Record Maybe?

How many of the membership in the N.C. Numismatic Association realize that all officers and board members are life members except one. This speaks well for your organization for it means the leadership of the association are dedicated men who are interested in the well being and success of your fraternity and will devote their energies and talents to make it a better organization and one of which we can all be proud.

CHARLIE GRACE and JIM WOODY of Florence, S. C. at Charlie's Bourse Table, Charlie won the Big Trophy, Jim was Runnerup at the Winston Salem Coin Club Show recently.

Big Winners At Winston Salem

Charlie Grace and Jim Woody of Florence, S. C. win the top spot and also the runnerup spot at Winston Salem Coin Show held Sept. 15 and 16th

Charlie Grace of Florence, S. C. won the best in Show Award at the Winston Salem Coin Show Recently with his collection of Obsolete South carolina Bank Notes. Charlie boasts one of the finest displays offered anywhere of S. C. Notes. His collection contains many extremely rare notes and Charlie is the proud owner of Several One of a Kind Notes and some that are even unlisted, that is no catalog lists them, this exhibit is a treat for any paper money collector and Charlie is an authority on obsolete notes having been a contributing editor on several books published on obsolete notes. In spite of all this Charlie is unhappy with his collection and the reason is it doesn't contain a note from his home town of Florence, S. C. and he would be most happy to acquire one so if you have one from Florence I'm sure Mr. Grace would be happy to negotiate with you for the purchase of it.Jim Woody also of Florence, S. C. took runnerup honors at the W.S. Coin Show and received the Superior award. Jim's exhibit is in the educational vein and is on coin grading and is very well presented to actually show what the different grades look like. The next time out for these two exhibitors will be the S. C. Numismatic Association Convention in Columbia, S. C. Nov. 16, 17, and 18th.

CHARLOTTE DEALER WINS TROPHY

It is good business to keep a neat, orderly, well arranged and attractive place of business, your customers appreciate it and the customer will usually spend his hobby dollars with someone who presents such an appearance. I'm sure the judges were hard pressed to select a winner of the most attractive bourse table at the Winston Salem Coin Show but when the tallies were in it was Toney Helton of Charlotte who walked away proudly carrying the prize. To win this award I feel a dealer must pay attention to the little details and concentrate on the ordinary little things that make his bourse area extraordinary, congratulations TONY — — —

Tosca Harris, daughter of John and Jane Harris of Knoxville, Tenn. and granddaughter of Jim Woody, Editor of the SCanner, displays the Ruben Schreij, Jr. Memorial Award she won at Brimingham, it's almost as big as Tosca is.

FIVE YEAR OLD WINS BIG AT BIRMINGHAM

Tosca Harris, daughter of Jane and John Harris of Knoxville, Tenn., won the first annual Ruben Schreij, Jr. award at the Blue Ridge Numismatic Associations 14th annual convention held in Birmingham, Ala., Aug. 2, 3, 4 & 5. This award is for the best display of mint errors and is exclusively for Jr. exhibitors, no adults allowed. The award, a beautiful king sized silver tray is contributed by Mrs. Jean Schreij and husband, Ruben as a memorial to their son Ruben, Jr. who was tragically lost in an accident in Maryland three years ago. Ruben, Jr. was 23 years old at the time. Tosca Harris is only five years old but she is a veteran exhibitor. This was her third competition in Blue Ridge. She has competed twice at Florence, S. C., twice at The N. C. Numismatic Assoc. conventions and even has a "Best in Show" awarded her in competition at the Fayetteville Coin Show, Now, you older Jr. Exhibitors better sit up and take notice, start upgrading those collections and start looking for those errors in earnest as this little girl is already going great guns, and when she grows up we adults are going to be hard pressed to beat her for the Big Ones.

That old saying "you can't there from here" doesn't apply in this case because regardless of where you are you can get to Columbia on Nov. 16, 17, and 18th to attend the S. C. Numismatic Assocation Convention and show. This will be a gala affair and a must for all coin collectors. The tentative schedule calls for setting up on Thursday, November 15th.

As of this writing a firm time has not been established but it will be Thursday afternoon, for exact time you may contact George Crocker or Marion Davis. A President's Social Hour will be held Thursday Night at the Sheraton Hotel-Motel. Continental Breakfast will be available on both Friday and Saturday for Dealers and Exhibitors. Show hours on both Friday and Saturday will be 10:00 A. M. to 10:00 P. M. while the hours for Sunday will be 12 noon to six P. M. The awards breakfast will be held at 9:00 A. M. Sunday at the Sheraton. Security will begin at setup time Thursday and end at 6:00 P. M. Sunday. The schedule of meetings and the announcement of winners of the various races for offices will be released later by Pres. George Crocker. Everyone connected with this show has worked hard to insure it's success and if you miss this one you will have missed one of the best plannned, best publicized, best presented shows ever staged in this area, SO REGARDLESS OF WHERE YOU ARE you can get to Columbia from there, see you then Y ALL COME

Letter From Editor

First Edition

This is the first edition of your journal and irregardless of how many future copies are printed there will never be another first edition of this Journal. This venture can be a rousing success or a dismal failure, it will have to be supported by the membership to ever grow and be the kind of publication of which we can be proud, please bear in mind too that the editors are not professional journalists and, therefore, we will make mistakes, we will endeaver to keep these mistakes to a minimum and of a minor nature and we ask your indulgence until we, the editors become more experienced for skill also comes with experience and we feel your journal will improve as time passes. Now we the Editors will welcome articles from our readers and from clubs and especially about local shows and we will make every effort to publish them. To be successful the Journal will have to be interesting and informative with just a dash of humor and each time our readers contribute anything toward this end, then you will have helped write a success story, that old saying about the sweet smell of success will have a significant meaning to those who contribute something to make this a worthwhile venture. That is what is known as a joint venture and usually when people join together for a common goal something good is usually the result, just as helping can insure success, NOT helping can contribute to failure so we can help make a failure by doing nothing, which will it be? Success or failure? It's up to us isn't it?

Hello To All of You, The Members of N.C.N.A.

First, I wish to thank all of you that helped make this, the first issue of the N.C.N.A. News, possible. Without a lot of help it could have never happened. We hope to have "The News" published four times a year, with everyone pitching in maybe twelve times. Anyone with a news story please send it to our editor.

Next, our convention is here (Nov. 9-10-11), so please lets all you N.C.N.A. members please come to Greensboro and bring a friend to sign up as a new member. Think of the upcoming year, who do you want for your new officers?

Donnie L. Stewart, Jr. Lonnie Stewart, Ennis "JIM" Stewart,

100th Member

Little Donnie L. Stewart, Jr. of Winston Salem, N. C. became the 100th member of that Coin Club recently. Donnie Jr. is the grandson of Lonnie and Ennis "JIM" Stewart of Winston Salem and Lonnie and "JIM" reported they planned it that way. Both said they had the application all ready and watched the roster closely and when member number 99 enrolled they quickly submitted Donnie's name and he thus became member No. 100. When asked if Donnie, Jr. was a collector yet "JIM" and Lonnie both agreed he was not yet a collector but that little detail would be taken care of in the near future, both explained Donnie, Jr. is only 2 1/2 years old and just a trifle young to appreciate the finer points of collecting just now but both agreed and I must concur that the first thing a potential collector should do is join a coin club and little Donnie, Jr. has done that, thanks to his wonderful, thoughtful Grandparents, wouldn't be surprised to see him on the exhibitor circuit soon, especially if he raids Grandpa Lonnie's coins, you see Lonnie is a Winston Salem Coin dealer and where is a better place to start a collection than at a dealer especially if that dealer is you KIN — — —

If You See This Woman Notify Your Local Coin Club Immediately: Reward.

Yes, if you see this woman or any of hundreds like her notify your coin club immediately for she is desperately sought after and needed. you will easily recognize her. Her M.O. (METHOD OF OPERATION) is always the same generally. She appears at Coin Shows always well scrubbed, friendly, smiling, well dressed and immaculately groomed. She sits at the entrance to the coin show and takes people's money, usually for door prizes and occasionally for admission, she invariably fills out name tags for visitors and heads up the information booth answering such questions as Where Can I Mr. X a delaer from Cleveland, Where is the 1895 dollar on display at? Can I buy a silver dollar for my grandson and many more too numerous to mention, she runs errands and most of the time helps set up the showplace. In her spare time during a show she gets breakfast for her family, gets her family dressed and ready to attend to the show, prepares dinner or goes out to dinner with the gang if she is lucky, on Sunday she usually attends church and prepares Sunday Dinner then back to the old coin show doing business in the same spot at the entrance to the show. Now lets cease calling this prize a woman and refer to her by her correct title which is "LADY" and in fairness I must say this hard working much needed person is oftentimes a Gentleman but regardless of whether they come Lady or Gentleman they are in much demand and as for the reward? Well isn't it quite a reward to get a worker to do what this lady does, Now just who is this Lady? It is Mrs. ENNIS "JIM" Stewart of Winston Salem, N. C. A Wife, Mother, Grandmother and much sought after worker. May all Coin Clubs CAPTURE many like this LADY for the REWARD is GREAT.

E. T. Register, Pres. North Carolina Numismatic Assoc., Doris Rice, Mr. L. O. "JACK" Rice.

Mr. L. O. "JACK" Rice of Asheville, N. C. was made an Honorary life member of the Board of Governors for The North Carolina Numismatic Association and this honor, although humbly received by "JACK" was indeed richly deserved. "JACK" was also presented with a beautiful red coat symbolic of officers in the association. This award came as a complete surprise to "JACK" and also to this writer but I'm sure the N. C. Numismatic Assoc. would be hard pressed to find a recipient more deserving than "JACK". Here is a partial list of his credits: Secretary for the N. C. State Numismatic Assoc. for 4 years, on the Board of Governors of the N. C. State Assoc. for 4 years, has worked diligently for the Land of the Sky Coin Clubs (which is a conglomerate of five coin clubs) for years, and has served as its exhibits chairman many times. Served on the Board of Governors for the Blue Ridge Numismatic Assoc. for 6 years and has served Blue Ridge as Exhibits Chairman. "JACK" has also served other coin clubs in both North and South Carolina as exhibits chairman. All this took place on Sunday, July 22 at the Awards Breakfast of "JACK'S" home show, the Land of the Sky Coin Show this year. Much to everyone's sorrow "JACK" was forced to curtail his activities last year because of health reasons and it was always good to see his smiling face at a show. He still adds a lot to any show he attends. I'm sure we all wish him nothing but the best. This includes his lovely wife, Doris. May you both live as long as you want and never want as long as you live.
